Barbara Youngman Becomes Mrs. L. J. Peters in Ceremony

First Baptist Church of Lomita was the scene of a candlelight nuptial ceremony which united in marriage, Miss Barbara Jean Youngman and Louis J. Peters, Friday, April 8 at 8 p.m.

Miss Elaine Baxley sang "Melody of Love," "Because of You" as the 200 guests were being seated by Lee Cassalichio and Ronald Smith. During the benediction of the singing ceremony, she also sang "The Lord's Prayer."

For the ceremony, the altar and chancel were decorated with baskets of white carnations and roses and lighted by tall taper in branch standards.

The bride, who is the daughter of Ralph Youngman of Lomita and Mrs. Gladys Henderson of Redondo, repeated vows in a white bridal gown styled with a Chantilly lace jacket and full net skirt. Her finger tip veil was held by a white satin cap, ornamented with sequins and pearls.

Her attendants were Mrs. Joyce Covey serving as matron of honor wearing a pink lace gown over taffeta with cap fashioned of pink roses; bridesmaids, the Misses Linda and Lola Gwaltney wore identically designed gowns of blue lace over taffeta worn with caps of yellow roses. Mrs. Covey carried pink roses and the bridesmaids yellow roses. Larry Gogy attended the bridegroom as best man.

A reception followed in the church hall. Mrs. Sarah Booker, cousin of the bride, took charge of the guest book.

Upon their return from an undisclosed trip, the newlyweds will make their home at 969 W. 14th St., San Pedro.

Bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hanks of San Pedro, is a graduate of San Pedro High School, winter class of '53. The new Mrs. Peters was graduated from Narbonne High School with the winter class of '54.
